

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Dalton Nicol Reid joins HUB24 managed account platform

Media Release 16th December 2009 Dalton Nicol Reid has joined a select number of asset managers on the new HUB24 managed account administration platform.

Established in 2007 the HUB24 platform, delivers an efficient, reliable and cost effective administration platform for managed accounts.

“We have been examining HUB24 for some time,” said Harley Dalton, chief executive of Dalton Nicol Reid. “HUB24 provides a robust technology solution, sound business model and makes the provision of managed accounts efficient for asset managers, advisers and investors.”

Dalton Nicol Reid has made available on the HUB24 platform four portfolios including its Australian equities growth, income and ethical portfolios as well as its listed property trust model.

“We believe HUB24 provides advisors and investors with a very positive separately managed account investment experience, including performance, tax benefits and transparency,” said Mr Dalton. “It is this type of investment experience that will see managed account platforms increasingly challenge traditional wraps and platforms.”

Dalton Nicol Reid’s flagship “Incrementus” growth portfolio that is now available on HUB24, was recently rated by S&P and has consistently delivered superior, risk adjusted performance, outperforming the S&P ASX 200 Accumulation Index over five years by 4 per cent (after fees).

Established in 2001, Dalton Nicol Reid is one of Australia’s most experienced, and one of the largest, independent Managed Account providers delivering leading investment management capabilities and an in-house platform for institutions and high net worth investors.

Dalton Nicol Reid has approximately $550 million under management as at end of November 2009.
